LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

By W. W. Mosley.

The funeral of Mrs. Carrie Previt, who died last Sunday morning, was held in the Mt. Zion Baptist Church Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. Rev. O. J. Burchard officiated, assisted by other ministers. Deceased was the widow of the late David W. Previt, who died about two years ago. Deceased is survived by a son, who is in the United States army, stationed in California, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Seidles, of Chicago, who arrived too late for the funeral. Quite a crowd of friends were in attendance. Miss Lucille Hammond and Mr. Gilbert Hubbard were unitedly married last Friday. Jasper Brown has arrived home from overseas. He returns to his former job as porter on the B. I. M. Ry. Mrs. H. M. Williams returned home from Chicago last week, where she had been to attend the funeral of her brother, George Bailey. Mrs. Allen left Monday for her home in End, Okla., after spending about a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lottie Hale, and her son, L. J. Allen. Roland Young is confined at home with the measles. P. L. Moore is reported doing as well as can be expected owing to his severe injury. W. H. Nelson is reported in a critical condition at the hospital. Mrs. Clara Shipman is yet ill at her home. B. Smith preached for Mt. Zion congregation last Sunday night. Covenant services at the morning hour. Mrs. L. B. Moore has charge of the Sabbath School and we look for a fine school again.

TUSKEGEE, ALABAMA.

March 10, 1919.

During the recent Tuskegee Negro Conference, which was held here, Dr. Bradford Knapp, Chief of the Agricultural Extension Work in the South, announced in his address the appointment of three colored men in an advisory capacity to him and also as representatives of the Farm Demonstration Work among Negroes in the South.

These three colored men will be known as Field Representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture, and include T. M. Campbell, who will act for the Department in Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi and Tennessee; J. B. Pierce, of Hampton Institute, who will act for the Department in the work in Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia, Kentucky, North Carolina, and South Carolina; and E. L. Blackshear, of Prairie View Institute, Texas, who will represent the work in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas. They are to support and assist all Negro extension work in the territory allotted to them, and also to ascertain and report on the general condition of Negro farmers in this same territory. At regular intervals these three Negro special representatives will be called to Washington for conferences on the various aspects of their work.

JEFFERSON CITY, MO.

The marriage ceremony of Mr. Earl Bolton and Miss Edna Caldwell was solemnized at the home of the groom on Clark avenue last Friday. The Institute Farm is proving quite a factor in the school life. The students of the Agriculture classes are gaining practical knowledge of soil, tillage and the like. Several hogs from the farm have been slaughtered for the boarding department and the Domestic Science girls learned much in the cutting up of the meat and the making of sausage. Again two incubators and a number of hens are already engaged upon the task of replenishing the poultry yard. And last, but by no means least, it is common gossip that the farm boasts the best wheat field in this vicinity. Hurrah! for the Institute Farm. The Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Association gave a joint program in the Chapel Sunday afternoon that was quite creditable. Hon. J. S. Harris had a resolution introduced in the House of Representatives inviting the representative Negroes of Missouri to meet in the House of Representatives March 27th and 28th. It was unanimously passed. Many distinguished persons of both Many Races will speak on this occasion. Miss Ethel Robinson spent the week-end in St. Louis; Mrs. Rowen in Fulton and Mr. W. E. Jacobs in Kansas City. Little Edward Rose, a pupil in the Model School, fell last Sunday and sustained a fracture of the bone in his left leg. Mrs. Crump, matron of the boys' dormitory, was called to Paris, Mo., because of her mother's serious illness.

NEVADA, MO.

By Anna Hanby.

The St. John A. M. E. Church held revival meetings for the past ten days, conducted by the great Evangelist, Rev. Blanche Blake, of Kansas City, Mo. She is a forceful speaker, earnest worker, charming singer and with her touch of Southern dialect adds much to one's impression of her. Her ever reminded "Old-Time Religion" which is clearly demonstrated in her whole being and her famous song, "Praise God: I'm Satisfied," won the hearts of all who heard her. She stirred Nevada from center to circumference, brought about a friendly relation of black and white Races such as was never known before. White and Colored choirs sang for her. People of all classes and both Races flocked to hear her. The church was filled to overflowing. Sagely men and grave women, youthful girls and boys all sat with bowed heads as she impressed upon them the importance of possessing the "Old-Time Religion."

When Sister Blake was about to depart, white and black wept and from the audience came the offer of $100.00. If she would remain another week, but true to her promise she said, "I must refuse the tempting offer, for I have opened my mouth unto the Lord and I can't take it back." The church and pastor and city at large have been greatly benefited by the Rev. Blake, having come here. The A. M. E. Church may well feel proud of her and bless the day they sent her forth. Madam Sadie E. Dimery of Kansas City, Mo., superintendent of the A. C. E. League of the State of Missouri, also a dramatic leader and scriptural orator, came to us near the close of the great revival meeting which was conducted by the Evangelist, Blake, at the A. M. E. Church. It can be truthfully said, that Madam Dimery is traveling on her merit, for she bears a just title. She is one of the greatest dramatic leaders and pulpit orators of the hour. Able critics admit that she has at her command the best English in the English language. She possesses a charming personality, highly cultivated talents, modest in dress, adroit in expression, witty in conversation and sympathetic in dealing with the deplorable conditions of men and women and of the fallen youth, especially.

Oh, we would not duplicate Madam Dimery in an age. She is the admiration and envy of many. She gave her erasing Wednesday evening to a crowded house. Some of the best talent of both races were present. She so swayed her audience at some points in her reading that they were now spellbound, then on tiptoes, peeping back to yesterday years and whispering congratulations to Shakespeare, Dunbar and other factors that gave birth to such human power—Madam Dimery gave four lectures, all of them impressive, reached the climax in the need of a Christian education and wisdom above all get understanding. She organized the A. C. E. League, gave the last lecture Sunday night and departed Monday night for Neosho, Mo.

NORBORNE, MO.

Misses Birdie and Magnolia Buckner are two girls who will succeed. Little Elsie Ford of the first grade possesses rare traits of genius. She is only seven years old and can read readily the current literature in newspapers and magazines. The pupils of Douglass School are preparing a program for Arbor Day. Parents and friends are invited and requested to bring trees and to assist in beautifying the grounds.

SLATER, MO.

By Mrs. Josie Walls.

Rev. Spencer Ray of Malta Bend visited Rev. E. F. Pate and family Friday and Saturday. Prof. C. S. Walls, and Prof. and Mrs. A. C. Lewis attended the funeral of Mr. Jones Evans at Glasgow Thursday. Mrs. Josie Walls will leave for Sedalia Saturday to visit her daughter, Edna Walls, a student at George R. Smith College. Mrs. J. M. Logan entertained a few of the young ladies Monday night. Mrs. Mollie Wilson, Miss Ardene Walls and Miss Athleen Walls spent the week-end at Glasgow. Rev. Arthur Diggs and bride took 3 o'clock dinner at Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Pate's Tuesday, then left for Blackburn, where Rev. Diggs preached. The Home Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Margie Woods Tuesday evening. The Missionary Circle of the Second Baptist Church met Tuesday evening and arranged for their annual bazaar.

LATHROP, MO.

Mrs. Henry Hicks was called to St. Joseph Saturday on account of the illness of her mother. Mrs. Addie Smith of 2445 Euclid avenue spent the week-end in Lathrop with her sister, Mrs. B. B. Tully. Mrs. W. T. Miller and Mrs. S. W. Whitsett went to Kansas City Friday, attending the marriage of Miss Xenia Orear to Mr. Roy K. Hardy. Mrs. Miller was a Kansas City visitor Saturday. Mr. Turner Graham of Kansas City spent Sunday with home folks and was accompanied by his brother. Prof. Tully is worse at this writing. Mr. George Hicks was in Cameron Tuesday. The marriage of Miss Xenia A. Orear and Mr. Roy K. Hardy was solemnized in Kansas City Saturday at 10 o'clock a. m. Rev. Richard Davis, pastor of Centennial Chapel, officiating. Only the family being present. After the ceremony the bridal party was entertained at the Y. M. C. A. with a dinner party.

Covers were laid for ten. Mr. Hardy was formerly business secretary of the army Y. M. C. A. at Camp Dodge, Ia. After spending a few days with relatives here they will be at home at 2063 North Sixth street, Kansas City, Kas. Our most hearty congratulations extended to this happy couple. Mrs. S. W. Whitsett entertained with a dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Roy K. Hardy of Kansas City. Those enjoying the hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Misses Mossie and Verena Graham, Virgie Kinney, Christine Miller, Mesdames R. Lee, Ligon, Eugie Weston and Mr. E. Wilson. Mrs. W. M. Miller was at home Monday afternoon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Hardy of Kansas City. Music and games were enjoyed by all present. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Mossie and Verena Graham, Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. Goldie Ligon, Miss Christine Miller, Mr. Charles O. Powell and Mrs. S. Mitchell. Mr. and Mrs. K. Hardy received a number of useful and valuable gifts from the bride's many friends.

MARYVILLE, MO.

Rev. L. P. Bryant conducted quarterly meeting in Savannah, Mo., Sunday. Mrs. Henry Wilson had as weekend guest Mrs. L. P. Bryant. The funeral service of Mr. Rufus Palmer, who died at the residence of his sister, Mrs. B. F. Smart, Saturday morning were held at the Baptist Church Monday at 2:30 o'clock. The Masonic services, beautiful and impressive, were conducted by Hon. Nelson C. Crews of Kansas City, Mo. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Mr. Palmer was a fine young man and we regret his loss. His brother, Mr. James Palmer, and sister, Mrs. B. F. Smart, did everything for his comfort during his illness. Those who attended the funeral from out of the city were Hon. N. C. Crews and Hon. T. G. McCampbell, Grand High Priest of Kansas City, Mo., Rev. and Mrs. Matthew Kelly of Oskaloosa, Mr. J. C. Cooper, Mr. A. D. Butler and Mr. Geo. Welton of St. Joseph, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Price of Bedford, Ia., Mrs. Brown of Clinton, Ia., Rev. H. J. Herring of St. Joseph, Mo., officiated. We, the citizens of Maryville extend to the family our sympathy. Much damage was done Saturday by the cyclone that struck Maryville. The beautiful Normal building was damaged and the loss was estimated at $50,000. Mr. Carl Dodd of St. Joseph, Mo., is the guest of Miss Lucy Williams. Rev. Kelly preached an excellent sermon at the Baptist Church Tuesday evening. Mr. Euel Montgomery spent Saturday and Sunday visiting his wife and baby. Mrs. Josie Christman arrived from Chicago and is visiting her mother, Mrs. Lena Mosely. Mrs. Frankie Tillman and Mrs. L. P. Bryant were dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. Luella Anderson. Mrs. Nannie Misner, Mrs. Luella Anderson and Mr. Harold Carriger wish to thank their many friends for the kindness rendered them during the illness and death of their dear brother, Dorel Carriger, and for the beautiful floral offerings. Prof. and Mrs. Boone and son were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Sunday.

SALINA, KANS.

Miss Jennie Osweil, who has been teaching at Russell Springs, Kans., arrived home Sunday after completing another successful year's work—Hon. G. W. Banks was host to the people of this city Wednesday evening of a banquet given in behalf of the American Woodmen Life Insurance Co. Persons present listened to an other one of Mr. Banks well delivered and interesting lectures, after which refreshments were served and enjoyed by all. Each organization of the A. M. E. church has obligated itself to pay off one of the small debts of the church. The ladies of the Senior Stewardess Board gave a six o'clock chicken dinner at the church in the basement Friday evening to aid in the debt they have taken and were very successful in the first effort. Mrs. Mary DePrad, Hill City, Kans., is in the city visiting her sisters, Mrs. W. C. Woodley and her daughters, Mrs. Frances DePrad Parker. Mrs. Henrietta Harper Wichita was the guest of Mrs. Henry Jordan and other friends the last of the week. Mrs. Harper came as a representative of the Kansas Defense Society and spoke at the St. James Baptist Church Sunday evening. Her message appealed very favorably to the people and they all contributed. Mrs. Ora Jordan Carter, who was spending a few days with her parents, left Thursday morning to join Mr. Carter at Joplin, Mo. At the Mass Meeting Thursday evening which was held for the election of delegates to Wichita, Kans., 25th and 26th of March for the purpose of electing officers of the New Organization for the Negroes of the state of Kansas. The delegates elected were:—Dr. H. H. Wilson and Rev. O. H. Burbridge, pastor of the A. M. E. Church. Men who the people of Salina think will do the right thing by the people of Salina and the State. Among the many things that have been done for the race, the greatest thing is yet to be done, and that is to organize our forces for good.

CROWEBERG, KANSAS.

This little "Burg" is still on the map. The influenza contagion has abated, and the churches and schools are working again in normal condition. Rev. L. J. Cooper, pastor of St. John Baptist Church, preached a rare sermon on Christianity in business. His hammer was red hot. McDaniel's grocery, one of the finest in S. E. Kansas, is doing a creditable business. The restaurants of Myrtle Beard and Pae are doing a fine business. Geo. Reid, McDaniel and Meredith have nice autos, and do fine passenger service to the different camps. To the Croweburg citizens who want the "Sun" give your subscription and news to Prof. W. F. King.

PITTSBURG, KANSAS.

The influenza is making its return to Pittsburg. Mrs. Gilbert Taylor is reported very sick. Miss Marie Carroll is also indisposed. Mrs. Lula Williams of Junction City, Kans., sister of Mrs. Gilbert Taylor, was called to our city to care for her sister during her illness. Pastor J. T. Elias is still rallying funds for the rebuilding of his church which was recently destroyed by fire. The Men's and Women's Clubs are still contesting. The Ladies' Club had the Croweburg Comedy Co. entertain them at the High School Auditorium Friday night March 14th. The Comedy was assisted by several splendid numbers from the A. M. E. Church, Pittsburg, Kans. Those deserving mention were A chorus by the pupils of Douglas School, directed by Miss Bertha Williams, one of the prominent teachers of Douglas School. The audience was enraptured over the whistling mocking bird, Mrs. Edith Bailey of Coffeyville, accompanied by Mrs. Essie Wilson, pianist and Mrs. Frankie Pierce, Violin. Read the Sun and see what our race is doing in other fields. Send your subscription to the Editor, Nelson Crews or to the reporter, W. F. King, 1005 N. Walnut.

BOONEVILLE, MO.

The Charity Girls and Usher Council gave a reception in honor of Rev. G. E. Horsey and family. The church was beautifully decorated in white and green in keeping with St. Patrick's Day. A strong musical program was rendered by the members of the two societies. Mrs. Viola Jackson, president of the Charity Girls, acting mistress of ceremonies. The guests left after voting everything a success and the Charity Girls and Usher Council splendid entertainers. An elaborate three course luncheon was served with members of the Usher Council, acting as waiters.

MANHATTAN, KANS.

Sergt. Derring of Omaha, Mr. H. Warden, Mr. H. Tyler of Abilene and Mr. Lloyd Smith of Camp Grant were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Meckling Sunday. Mrs. A. Jones of Rosedale is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Pryor. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith stopped over on their way from McFarland to their home at Fort Riley and spent the night with Mrs. Pryor. Lieut. A. Wright and wife were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Busch Sunday. Those who have been on the sick list are improving nicely and we are glad to see their faces again. Mrs. Downing of Denver is visiting Mrs. B. Ferguson. Mr. and Mrs. G. Allen are the proud parents of a baby boy born on the 14th. Mr. Mose was guest of Mrs. Alexander Friday evening. The play face at the window was given at Community House on the 11th. The Art Club gave a successful entertainment Saturday evening. Mrs. Alexander received a card from her son overseas, stating he was well. If you wish to subscribe for the Sun yearly see Rev. Henderson. The Seventeenth Annual session of the Lincoln Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is in session at Shepherd Chapel. Bishop A. L. Leonard, presiding.
